

Says
What have we heard them say?
What can we imagine them saying?

Thinks
What are their wants, needs, hopes, and dreams?
What other thoughts might influence their behavior?

India is a
parlimentary secular
democratic republic
in which the president of India is the head of state.

Politics of India
works within the framework of the country's constitution.

We need to study
political in order to effectively
participate in political processes and
understand how they
impact us.

Politics is the way that
people living in
group make
decisions.

The Indian
parliment
consists of two
house,namely the Lok Sabha and Rajya Sabha.

we should be aware of your
political rights
such as the right to vote.

We will do this project for Analysis of candidates in the 2019 Lok Sabha
elections.

To provide a set
of basic rules that
allow for minimal
coordination
amongst member
of society.

We know about the 17th Lok Sabha
was formed by the member elected in the 2019
Indian general
election.

We know about the Lok Sabha is composed of
representatives of
people choosen by
direct election on the basic of universal
Adult Suffrage.

To set some
limits on what
a government
can impose
on its citizens.

It decides
how the government
will be constituted.

Does
What behavior have we observed?
What can we imagine them doing?

Feels
What are their fears, frustrations, and anxieties?
What other feelings might influence their behavior?
